

Event Report
Intelligente Stadt
On Smart city March 10, 2018

Innovation club, Dr B R Ambedkar NIT Jalandhar has successfully organised a national level completion on the theme of SMART CITY namely INTELLIGENTE STADT on March 10, 2018.

The inauguration started with the introductory speech by Dr. L P Singh, faculty coordinator (Innovation Club) and he revealed that main objective is to sought innovative and cost effective ideas for smart city and inculcate a sense of belongingness among the young technocrats to participate in the mission of smart city. Moreover the new and innovative ideas selected based upon the merits shall be explored and converted into reality through the Incubation centre and district administration. Director of Institute Prof. L K Awasthy also give his short speech through social media and motivated the students for participation, he mentioned that the selected ideas will be funded through TEQIP and Incubation centre for new start-ups. He also appreciated the initiative taken by Dr L P Singh and wished the team innovation club for success. More than 25 teams from prestigious colleges like; GNE Ludhiana, Lovely Professional University, GNDU including NIT Jalandhar and others participated in the event. Dr L P Singh presented bouquet to the event guests of honours Dr A. Mukopadhaya and Dr A L Sangal, the event was sponsorer Mr. Navdeep Singh MD of Brim Energy, and event judge Dr Arun Khosla and Dr Dilbagh Singh.

Team "Life to Life" was awarded with the first prize which is from NIT Jalandhar with idea of kidneys swapping between families. It has created a website for the members and it will enables to provide an optimal match between the two families for interchange of organs across the country and Globe. The link of the website; Link: <https://life2life.000webhostapp.com>.

Team "A1403" from Lovely Professional University was awarded with the second prize which is. They have presented idea about smart security system using RF module to track the vehicles which is already implemented in their collage premises.

Team "Pravaah" from NIT Jalandhar was awarded with third prize. The idea behind the team was making use of natural process for making useful items from garbage. All the garbage is collected at the Bio mass plant and made use of it. The event was ended with the felicitation ceremony to the participants and the chief guests.

Group Photo for with Participants

Team Life to life being awarded with prize, Dr Dilbag Singh (Left), Dr L P Singh (Second from) Right and Er Navdeep Singh , MD Brim Energy (Right).

Group photo With Organizing team

Winner Team With Director Professor L K Awasthy, Dr L P Singh, Dr S S bal and Dr Raman Bedi